

AIR FORCE SMALL BUSINESS INNOVATION RESEARCH (SBIR)/
SMALL BUSINESS TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER (STTR) PROGRAMS
PHASE I AND II CERTIFICATIONS – LIFE CYCLE SUBMISSION

All SBIR/STTR Phase I and II awardees must complete this certification document at the following times: Phase I awardees – prior to receipt of final payment; Phase II awardees – prior to receipt of more than half the total contract award amount AND before receipt of final payment. All questions must be answered and an authorized officer of the company must sign and date it prior to submission.

The information included in this document will be used to determine a firm’s continued eligibility for contract performance under the SBIR/STTR Programs. Definitions for terms used in this document are set forth in the Small Business Act (13 CFR Part 121), the Small Business Administration (SBA) SBIR and STTR Policy Directives, and statutory/regulatory provisions referenced within those authorities.

If the Government Contracting Officer (CO) believes the firm does not meet size eligibility requirements, the CO may request supporting documentation and clarifying information to assist in verification of contractor information already received.

Accurate representations/verifications/certifications made in this document are a condition of payment and constitute information upon which the Air Force relies. Payments to a company that improperly represents it meets the appropriate requirements when it does not prevents the Air Force from properly administering the SBIR/STTR Programs.

No information already provided to the Federal Government affects its right to pursue criminal, civil, or administrative remedies for incorrect or incomplete information provided in this document or on the proposal coversheet. Signatory authorities for this document may be prosecuted if false information is provided.
